Formal Complaint:

Qualified Candidate: Raymond T. Schamis

Delray Beach, FL 33444

Dear Federal Elections Commission,

I am filing a complaint concerning the 2014 Federal Election, U.S. House of Representatives FL-22 and the use of verified Twitter campaign accounts. I, Raymond T. Schamis, am a qualified candidate who received votes in the election. My complaint is concerning the violation of 11 CFR 110.11(a). Twitter accounts are public websites and "Tweets", "Retweets", and the use of specific "Hashtags" are political ads and solicitations.

Rep Lois Frankel and Candidate Paul Spain, FL-22, have verified twitter campaign account. These accounts are administered by the candidates and/or the candidate's political committee. Twitter accounts are public websites. When a "tweet" or "retweet(RT)" is sent out, it is available to all participants on twitter, not a restricted class.

Violation #1: Twitter accounts are public websites. As such, a disclaimer must be placed on the website. Moreover, the "tweets" and "retweets"(which are electronic mails, i.e. emails) are available to all members of Twitter. Therefore, all "tweets" and "retweets" must have a disclaimer as per 11 CFR 110.11(a). When the twitter account holder uses "hashtags", they are forwarding additional electronic messages to other public websites for instant distribution and reproduction. These messages are also subject to specific disclaimer requirements as per 11 CFR 110.11(b) (and the Commission's brochure "Special Notices on Political Ads and Solicitations."). Additionally, if a political committee sends out more than 500 substantially similar e-mails (a "tweet" or "retweet", each message must include a disclaimer as per 11 CFR 110.11(a). As of the third quarter of 2014, Twitter averaged at 284 million monthly active users. Every "Tweet" or "Retweet" is an electronic mail immediately available and directed at all these users. The accumulation of these "solicitation statements" also represents a single "mega solicitation", exceeding any minimum character exemptions. Even more importantly, these "solicitation statements" contain pictures, and as we all know...a picture is 1000 words. Candidates in violation should be disqualified and fined.

Examples of "Tweets", "Retweets", and use of "Hashtags".

The Democratic National Party and The Republican National party have twitter accounts. These accounts are administered by paid workers of their respective political committee. Twitter accounts are public websites. When a "tweet " or "retweet"(RT) is sent out, it is available to all participants on twitter, not a restricted class.
